

L I B R A R Y A I N S

*one profession
one promise
one purpose*

KLA/KSMA JOINT CONFERENCE • GALT HOUSE EAST • LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY • SEPTEMBER 15 - 28, 2004

Wednesday, September 15, 2004

6:00PM - ???

The newest entertainment venue in Louisville is Fourth Street Live! In a landmark redevelopment, the old Galleria Shopping Mall has been converted into an open air shopping, dining, and entertainment complex. Located just three short blocks up Fourth Avenue from the Galt House, Fourth Street Live! Features: Hard Rock Café, T.G.I.

Friday's, Rascals Comedy Club, the Red Cheetah restaurant and nightclub, Red Star Tavern, Fashion Shop, Hallmark, and the Funky Parrot. Other tenants opening this summer and fall include: Borders Books & Music, Premier Fitness, McFadden's Bar & Restaurant, Lucky Strike Lanes and Felt. Take a stroll up Fourth Avenue or catch the trolley from the Galt House directly to Fourth Street Live! Wednesday nights feature live entertainment. Join us as we explore this new entertainment destination. Trolley runs until 10:30PM and costs .25 or the Pedway connects from 3rd Floor. Downtown may never be the same!

dinner cruise

Thursday, September 16, 2004

Transportation Departure Time: 6:00PM - Please be on time!

The Star of Louisville is 130 feet of Yacht-style nautical elegance with indoor climate-controlled dining facilities and outdoor observation decks. Join your colleagues for a scenic cruise for Dinner on the Ohio River. The cruise includes unlimited hot and cold buffets and features live entertainment. Join the fun at the discounted group price of $40.00 per person. The Star of Louisville now calls Jeffersonville, Indiana its homeport. Transportation to and from the Galt House is included. Preregistration required for this event.

preconferences

wednesday, september 15

10:00AM – 2:00PM

Diversity Leadership Strategies for the 21st Century

Speaker: Tracie D. Hall, Office for Diversity and the Spectrum Initiative, American Library Association

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Through the use of storytelling, group exercises, and resource sharing, this interactive workshop equips managers and employees with key strategies for promoting diversity and inclusion within the library. The workshop will also help in recognizing and appreciating the differences and similarities we all bring to the workplace. Lunch is included. Co-sponsored by University of Kentucky Libraries, University of Louisville Libraries, Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives, Lexington Public Library.

10:00AM – 2:00PM

Library Instruction: We're All In It Together!

Speaker: Dr. Patricia Senn Breivik, Dean of University Libraries, San Jose State University, San Jose, CA

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Soak up valuable information and inspiration from long-time information literacy advocate, Dr. Patricia Breivik! Gain understanding about what's happening on the information literacy scene—where we've been, where we're headed. Explore ways we can work together in the state of Kentucky to achieve common goals in library instruction. We're all in it together! The Pre-Conference is not designed to be a passive session and will provide opportunities to share and to ask questions. All librarians—from academic, public, school media, or special—who are interested or involved in information literacy initiatives are encouraged to attend. Lunch is included. Co-sponsored by the Library Instruction Round Table and the Academic Library Section.

8:30AM – 2:00PM

Putting Databases on the Web

Speaker: Glen Horton, Assistant Director & Technology Coordinator, Greater Cincinnati Library Consortium

Collins Rooms – 2nd Floor

Would you like to make your web site interactive? Do you want to make your site more accessible to visitors? Would you like visitors to be able to customize their experience at your web site? Then you need to learn about putting databases on the Web. In this hands-on workshop, participants will learn more about the tools and concepts of making databases available via the Web. Instruction on the creation of databases in both Microsoft Access[®] and MySQL[®] and the use of scripting languages such as ASP and PHP to link that information to a web site will be included. All of this will make creating a dynamic, database-driven web site a snap! Lunch is included. Sponsored by the Information and Technology Round Table. (Limited to 20 participants)

10:00AM – 2:00PM

Is Your Life Half Empty or Half Full? Strategies for Remaining Positive Regardless

Speaker: Ed Klee, Management and Staff Development Trainer and Consultant

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

The most productive employee can very easily become disillusioned coping with change and overwhelming responsibilities. Managing to stay positive in spite of the challenges can be accomplished by practicing eight keys to a positive attitude and life. This workshop incorporates "traveling the highway of life" analogy for learning eight keys to remaining positive regardless of the circumstances. Lunch is included.

INTERNET CAFÉ

The Information and Technology Roundtable, through a generous grant from the Kentucky Virtual Library User's Group, is providing an internet café at the 2004 KLA/KSMA Joint Conference. Located in the Combs/Chandler Room on the second floor of the Galt House East, ten stations will be available for attendees' usage during the conference. Note: A number of sessions will utilize the facility as a computer lab during the conference. When a session is being presented, the Café will not be available.

featured speakers

Preconference
Wednesday
10:00AM – 2:00PM

Brown Room

Ed Klee is a trainer and consultant specializing in management practices and employee development. He provides training and consultation in the areas of personal and managerial development, organizational performance, and facilitation of groups. His library career includes serving as a public library consultant, a manager of library consultants for Kentucky's State Library system and manager of Kentucky's bookmobile. He holds a Masters in Library Science from the University of Kentucky and a Masters in Conflict Resolution from Antioch University.

Preconference
Wednesday
10:00AM – 2:00PM

Nunn Room

Tracie D. Hall, Director of American Library Association Office for Diversity

Ms. Hall attended the University of Washington and was named to her current position in March, 2003. She was in the first group of Spectrum Scholars in 1998. Oversees management of OFD; serves as primary staff liaison to the Committee on Diversity and the Diversity Council; represents and promotes OFD to public, press and other constituencies; oversees OFD programming, manages OFD resource library; assists libraries and library professionals with issues related to diversity.

Preconference
Wednesday
10:00AM – 2:00PM
Opening General Session
Wednesday
General Session
2:30PM – 3:45PM

Dr. Patricia Senn Breivik serves as the Dean of the University Library at San José State University, where in collaboration with the Director of the San José Public Library, she is responsible for co-managing the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, the largest joint library in the United States today. The King Library, which opened in August 2003, serves as the Silicon Valley's 21st century information hub and has won several awards, including the Library Journal 2004 Library of the Year Award. Formerly, Dr. Breivik was the Library Dean at Wayne State University for four years, as the chief administrative officer in charge of five University Libraries, Media Services, the University Press, the Library and Information Science Program, the Office for Teaching and Learning, and UGE1000.

In the early 1990s, Dr. Breivik served as Associate Vice President for Information Resources at the Towson State University campus of the University of Maryland System for five years. At Towson, she was responsible for organizing, developing and managing units including the library, academic computing services, telecommunications, office automation, satellite systems, telephone and fax systems, and for campus-wide networking. Previously she served for over ten years as Director of the library and telecommunications services which support three academic institutions on the Auraria campus in Denver. During most of this period, she also served as part-time special assistant to the President of the University of Colorado. Earlier positions were as Dean of Library Services at Sangamon State University in Springfield, Illinois, and as Assistant Dean of Pratt Institute, Graduate School of Library and Information Science, Brooklyn, New York. Her awards and honors include: the Miriam Dudley Instruction Librarian Award (1997), the Pratt Institute Alumni Achievement Award (1995), the American Association of School Librarians Executive Board recognition for special contributions to School Library Media Programs (1992), the American Council on Education Fellows Program in Academic Administration Service Award (1990), and the Columbia University School of Library Service Distinguished Alumni Award (1989). Breivik holds a B.A. from Brooklyn College, an M.L.S. from Pratt Institute, and a D.L.S. from Columbia University.

Thursday, September 16, 2004
8:10 AM – 9:00AM

Mary Augusta Thomas directs the operation of twenty libraries located in each of the museums and research institutes and works with SI staff on library planning issues to support the mission of the Smithsonian. She began her career in the Dibner Library of the History of Science and Technology at the Smithsonian in 1976 and later served as assistant to the Director for Resource Development and as Assistant Director, Management and Technical Services for the Libraries office, before beginning her current assignment. Ms. Thomas received the Smithsonian Secretary's Award for Excellence in Equal Opportunity in 1999.

Thursday
KLA Awards Luncheon Key Note Speaker
Frank X. Walker is an Assistant Professor in the Department of English and Theatre and the Interim Director of African/African-American Studies at Eastern Kentucky University. He will read new poems that revisit Affrilachia and continue a commitment to sharing some of Kentucky's little known but rich history.

Thursday
1:30PM – 2:45PM

Judy Russell, appointed by Bruce R. James, Public Printer of the United States, is the 22nd Superintendent of Documents, and the first woman to hold the post.

Previously, from 1991 to 1996, Russell was Director of GPO's Office of Electronic Information Services where she was responsible for the development of GPOAccess, one of the Federal Government's most heavily used web sites. She also served as Deputy Director of the National Commission on Libraries and Information Science (NCLIS), the Federal agency that advises the President and Congress on the information needs of the people, from 1998 until she accepted the appointment as Superintendent of Documents in January, 2003.

featured speakers

General Session
Thursday
3:30PM – 4:30PM

Susan Miller, MA, MED
With two masters' degrees and a "B.A. in Burn-Out," Susan connects with her audience using humorous stories from her experience as a high school and college instructor, small business owner and city government manager. Susan Miller became known as Louisville, Kentucky's "Minister of Fun" for the creative festivals and events she helped produce during her eleven years as Special Projects Director for Louisville Mayor Jerry Abramson.

Prior to her job with city government, Susan taught high school English and drama at an innovative public school for self-directed learning and also directed college level theatre productions.

Susan now helps people re-energize their lives as President and CEO (Chief Expert of Oomph!) of Re-Energizing Communications Inc.

A native of Evanston, Illinois, Susan holds a Bachelor of Arts in Education and Theatre from Indiana University, a Master of Arts in Education and a Master of Science degree in Library Science from Spalding University.

Susan is the author of "OOMPH POWER! How To Get Re-Energized For Outrageous Success," published in 2003 by Simpson*Wesley Publishers.

Friday
11:30AM - 1:00PM
Children/Young Adult Author Luncheon
Rebecca Jackson, Author & Rich Thompson, Illustrator

Rebecca Jackson taught special education in the public schools and founded an employment agency for persons with handicaps prior to serving as the Jefferson County Judge/Executive and as Jefferson County Clerk.

The first woman elected to either office, she led the successful campaign to merge the City of Louisville and Jefferson County Governments. Jackson has written Mackenzie and the Baby Robin, whose story line is of wandering away and turning back toward home. She collaborated with her cousin, Rich Thompson. Rich retired from Valley High School after teaching art and photography for 27 years. As a teacher, Thompson sought to encourage student's creativity rather than turn them into Da Vinci's or Rembrandts.

providing technology assistance, technology training, and facilitating shared projects within the GCLC membership. Previously, Glen worked in the computing department of the Wright State University Libraries in Dayton, Ohio. He received his B.S. in Computer Science from Wright State University.

2:10PM – 3:00PM Fri, Sep 17, 2004
9:00AM – 10:15AM Sat, Sep 18, 2004
2:10PM – 3:00PM Sat, Sep 18, 2004

Doug Johnson has been the Director of Media and Technology for the Mankato Public Schools since 1991 and has served as an adjunct faculty member of Minnesota State University, Mankato since 1990. His teaching experience has included work in grades K-12 in schools both here and in Saudi Arabia.

He is the author of three books: The Indispensable Librarian, The Indispensable Teacher's Guide to Computer Skills, and Teaching Right from Wrong in the Digital Age. His regular column appears in Library Media Connection magazine and his articles have appeared in over thirty books and periodicals. Doug has conducted workshops and given presentations for organizations throughout the United States as well as in Malaysia, Kenya, Thailand, Germany, Qatar, Canada, the UAE and Australia and has held a variety of leadership positions in state and national organizations, including ISTE and AASL.

2:30PM - 3:30PM Thursday
9:00AM - 10:00AM Friday
6:30PM – 9:00PM Friday K SMA Awards
Banquet Keynote

Joseph P. Tessitore is Group Publisher at Reed Business Information. His publications include School Library Journal, Library Journal, Publishers Weekly and Criticas. With over 30 years of experience in the publishing industry, Joe was previously President of Grolier Publishing where he led the launch of Grolier Online, and title development at Children's Press, Franklin Watts and Orchard Books. Previously he served as President of Prentice Hall Professional Publishing, a Division of Simon and Schuster, and held senior marketing positions at McGraw Hill. Joe is a strong advocate for libraries, their funding and especially librarians! He believes that books and information are the first and last line of defense in a troubled world. Joe lives with his wife in Chappaqua, New York and is the proud parent of 3 children and 2 1/2 grandchildren. Most importantly....he loves Kentucky!!!!

K SMA Luncheon
Saturday
Kathi Appelt, poet, teacher, and author of over twenty books for children and young adults will be the guest speaker at the K SMA Luncheon on Saturday.

Friday
1:45PM – 3:00PM Friday

Glen Horton has nearly ten years experience supporting technologies in library environments. Currently residing in Cincinnati, Glen has served as the Technology Coordinator and Assistant Director for the Greater Cincinnati Library Consortium (GCLC) since 1999. His duties require him to have experience in a wide range of technologies. He is responsible for *program of eventswednesday, september 158:00AM - 5:00PM*Conference Registration

Second Floor Galt House East Tower

10:00AM – 2:00PMDiversity Leadership Strategies for the 21st CenturySpeaker: Tracie D. Hall, Office for Diversity and the Spectrum Initiative, American Library Association*Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Through the use of storytelling, group exercises, and resource sharing, this interactive workshop equips managers and employees with key strategies for promoting diversity and inclusion within the library. The workshop will also help in recognizing and appreciating the differences and similarities we all bring to the workplace. Lunch is included. Co-sponsored by University of Kentucky Libraries, University of Louisville Libraries, Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives, Lexington Public Library.

10:00AM – 2:00PMLibrary Instruction: We're All In It Together!Speaker: Dr. Patricia Senn Breivik, Dean of University Libraries, San Jose State University, San Jose, CA*Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Soak up valuable information and inspiration from long-time information literacy advocate, Dr. Patricia Breivik! Gain understanding about what's happening on the information literacy scene—where we've been, where we're headed. Explore ways we can work together in the state of Kentucky to achieve common goals in library instruction. We're all in it together! The Pre-Conference is not designed to be a passive session and will provide opportunities to share and to ask questions. All librarians—from academic, public, school media, or special—who are interested or involved in information literacy initiatives are encouraged to attend. Lunch is included. Co-sponsored by the Library Instruction Round Table and the Academic Library Section.

10:00AM – 2:00PMPutting Databases on the WebSpeaker: Glen Horton, Technology Coordinator, Greater Cincinnati Library Consortium*Collins Rooms – 2nd Floor

Would you like to make your web site interactive? Do you want to make your site more accessible to visitors? Would you like for visitors to be able to customize their experience at your web site? Then you need to learn about putting databases on the Web. In this hands-on workshop, participants will learn more about the tools and concepts of making databases available via the Web. Instruction on the creation of databases in both Microsoft Access[®] and MySQL[®] and the use of scripting languages such as ASP and PHP to link that information to a web site will be included. All of this will make creating a dynamic, database-driven web site a snap! Lunch is included. Sponsored by the Information and Technology Round Table.

10:00AM – 2:00PMIs Your Life Half Empty or Half Full? Strategies for Remaining Positive RegardlessSpeaker: Ed Klee, Management and Staff Development Trainer and Consultant*Brown Room – 2nd Floor

The most productive employee can very easily become disillusioned coping with change and overwhelming responsibilities. Managing to stay positive in spite of the challenges can be accomplished by practicing eight keys to a positive attitude and life. This workshop incorporates "traveling the highway of life" analogy for learning eight keys to remaining positive regardless of the circumstances. Lunch is included.

*opening sessionwednesday, september 152:30PM – 3:45PM*Forging PartnershipsSpeaker: Dr. Patricia Senn Breivik, Dean of University Libraries, San Jose State University, San Jose, CA*Carroll/Ford Room – 2nd Floor

Chosen as the Library Journal 2004 Library of the Year, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library in San Jose, California, represents the premier example of successful partnerships between a university and a city. Dr. Patricia Senn Breivik, Dean of the University Libraries, serves as one of the directors of the mega-library that provides services and resources to 27,000 students, 1,153 faculty and 924,950 citizens of the area. Dr. Breivik will share the dreams and plans that brought this structure into reality and provide fresh ideas for how libraries within the Commonwealth of Kentucky can form cooperative projects. You will not want to miss this dynamic presentation! Read the fascinating story of this venture in the June 15, 2004, issue of Library Journal. See how others in our profession are coming together with one purpose to create a promise for their community!

4:00PM – 5:00PMKLA Board MeetingMcCreary Room – 3rd Floor4:00PM – 5:30PM*Superintendent of Government Documents Judy Russell meets with Depository Library DirectorsCollins Room – 2nd Floor

5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

KPLA Board Meeting

McCreary Room – 3rd Floor

6:00PM – - ???

“Fourth Street Live” – Join your friends as we visit Louisville’s newest hot spot. The old Galleria mall has been transformed into an entertainment destination with a wide variety of restaurants, nightspots, shopping and more.

conference programs

thursday, september 16

7:30AM – 8:30AM

Roundtable Breakfast and Business Meetings

Carroll/Ford Room – 2nd Floor

8:10AM – 9:00AM

I Didn’t Know the Smithsonian Had a Library!

Mary Augusta Thomas – Associate Director for Readers Services and Strategic Planning, Smithsonian Institution Libraries

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Mary Augusta Thomas directs the operation of twenty libraries located in each of the museums and research institutes and works with SI staff on library planning issues to support the mission of the Smithsonian. She began her career in the Dibner Library of the History of Science and Technology at the Smithsonian in 1976 and later served as assistant to the Director for Resource Development and as Assistant Director, Management and Technical Services for the Libraries office, before beginning her current assignment. Ms. Thomas received the Smithsonian Secretary’s Award for Excellence in Equal Opportunity in 1999.

8:10AM – 9:00AM

The Smartest Card @ your library

Presenter: Judith Gibbons, Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Come learn about an exciting new campaign to help promote the value of your library and public libraries nationwide. The Public Library Association, a division of ALA, has designed a variety of materials and messages designed to help you raise public awareness in your community.

8:10AM – 9:00AM

The Beehive: An Online Resource for Low-Income and Working Families in Kentucky

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

Presenter: Gordon Strause, Director of Special Projects, One Economy

The Beehive is a web site designed to help low-income and working families improve their standard of living by providing information on money, health, jobs, schools, family, housing, and more. This session will introduce the Beehive and explore how libraries can use the site to help people find information.

2004 KLA/KSMA Conference

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

8:10AM – 9:00AM

Long-Term Care: The Risk and Challenge for Today’s Family

Presenter: Caroline Jackson, Jackson Senior Solutions

Collins Room – 2nd Floor

Gather information on Long Term Care, which includes Nursing Home Care, Home Health Care, Assisted Living Facilities, and Adult Day Care. Topics include Medicare, Medicaid, cost of long term care and what you should look for in a long term care program. KLA has endorsed a long term care program underwritten by a highly rated insurance company. This program gives you a premium advantage for yourself and immediate family members.

all conference session

9:00AM – 10:00AM

Strategies for Developing Collaboration and Partnerships between Academic Librarians and Teaching Faculty

Speaker: Dr. Patricia Senn Breivik, Dean of University Libraries, San Jose State University, San Jose, CA

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Higher education is facing challenges on many fronts, including the task of developing students who are self-motivated, independent learners. Producing graduates who can function effectively in a rapidly changing information environment requires a shift in the way library instruction is provided and the way faculty structure assignments and conduct their classes. Dr. Breivik will discuss ideas and strategies for improving collaborative efforts between librarians and faculty who are concerned with the outcomes of student learning.

10:00

Exhibits Open / Ribbon Cutting

poster sessions

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Utilizing and Updating the Kentucky Union List of Serials

Presenter: Allen Ashman, Kentucky Union List of Serials, Ekstrom Library, University of Louisville

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Come learn how to use the Kentucky Union List of Serials to increase the accuracy and efficiency of interlibrary loan transactions and how you can help keep your library’s serials holdings statements current.

L

I

B

R

A

R

I

A

N

S

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

10:30AM – 12:00PM

One Mission – Five Facets: Literacy and International College Students

Presenters: Deana Groves & Shiu Y. Mak, Cravens Library, Western Kentucky University

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Today's university population looks very different from those in the past. Multiple cultures combine to make-up both student and faculty personnel. With this in mind, the library and librarian's role to ensure quality service can take cues from five forms of literacy that reach well beyond information literacy. This poster will identify and discuss five facets of literacy in relation to the university international student: information literacy, reading literacy, media literacy, technology literacy and visual literacy.

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Social Bookmark Managers

Presenter: Sheri Myers, Steely Library, Northern Kentucky University

Exhibit Prefunction Area

An introduction to the concepts behind Social Bookmarking or Linking websites. See examples of how sites such as del.icio.us work to collect, annotate, and categorize Internet links. Discover how you can become part of this effort to organize the web.

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Information in an Instant

Presenters: Tiana French & Terry Buckner, Lexington Community College Learning Resource Center

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Tired of hearing "I didn't know I could do that!" when explaining library services? Do you serve a group that doesn't use the Internet, much less the library webpage? Letting patrons know about your services without resorting to confusing signage is a perennial problem in libraries. Here is one answer! INFORMATION IN AN INSTANT is a series of bookmarks that presents a concept in a short, easy to understand, useable format. Bookmarks are something everyone can use, and these bookmarks educate our patrons about our services while holding a place in their book! See what we have done and take home some ideas for your library.

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Open URL, Portal and ERM (Electronic Resources Management): Why Do I Care?

Presenters: Fannie M. Cox, Electronic Resources Coordinator & Weiling Liu, Director Office of Libraries Technology, Ekstrom Library, University of Louisville

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Since OpenURL and Portal are "old" words, why do I still care about them? I'm not an acquisitions or collection management librarian, so why do I need to know about ERM? This poster will define OpenURL compliant systems and explain why you should consider a portal and how public services can benefit from ERM systems.

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Virtual Library Users' Group

Presenter: Laura Davison, UK Medical Center Library, Rose Davis, Western Kentucky University, & others

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Stop by the VLUG poster session to learn more about the Virtual Library Users' Group! Officers will be available to answer your questions and discuss activities, as well as provide membership forms and other information relating to the Virtual Library.

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Serial Holdings: For All To See

Presenter: Marsha Seamans, William T. Young Library, University of Kentucky

Exhibit Prefunction Area

The William T. Young Library has invested considerable effort in the last few years entering holdings data for our serials into our online system. This session will describe and illustrate the process used to accurately reflect these holdings to our users locally and globally, moving from a kardex environment to online. The positive effect of this project on our users, on ILL, on reference services, and on our own technical services workflow and processes will be noted.

10:30AM – 12:00PM

Kentucky's Accessible IT Law – Implementation Update

Presenter: Steve Noble, Kentucky Assistive Technology Service Network

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Kentucky's Accessible Information Technology Law was passed in 2000, but many libraries are still unaware of its implications. This presentation will provide resources to better understand this law, and update participants on the current state of implementation.

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

10:30AM – 12:00PM

When Words Get in the Way: Exploring the Library's Role in Health Literacy

Presenter: Mary Congleton, Southern KY AHECI/UK Medical Center Library

Exhibit Prefunction Area

Literacy has been described as the strongest predictor of health status. This poster will define health literacy and offer various resources to educate and inform librarians of the role they can play in dealing with this issue.

11:00AM – 11:50AM

Honey, We're Having a Building

Presenter: Cindy Brown, Boone County Public Library
Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Does the thought of managing a building project send you into a panic? From building design to ribbon cutting, this session is for public library directors facing their first building project.

11:00AM – 11:50AM

The Hill and Beyond: Public and Academic Partners in Progress

Presenters: Lisa Rice, Bowling Green Public Library and Jayne Pelaski, Western Kentucky University

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Learn how one joint project for Bowling Green Public Library and Western Kentucky University Libraries has grown into a powerful partnership.

11:00AM – 11:50AM

Libraries Support of Distance Education Activities: A Historical Perspective

Presenter: Sharon Almquist, Northern Kentucky University Libraries

Sampson Room – 1st Floor

Long before computers became an effective way to disseminate information, public, academic, and state libraries and librarians supported various forms of distance education and lifelong learning. Innovative librarians, using available technology, established effective ways to bring knowledge to people throughout the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries. This session will examine some of these efforts.

11:00AM – 11:50AM

One for All and All for One: One Federal Depository System for All

Facilitator: Sandra McAninch, University of Kentucky Libraries
Brown Room – 2nd Floor

A panel of Kentucky Depository Librarians will discuss how the partnership between depositories across the state works to improve access to federal government information for all. Attendees will learn how depository libraries can do more and provide better access by working together.

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

11:00AM – 11:50AM

The Check is not in the Mail!

Presenters: Lesley W. Jackson and Rick Brewer, Access Service Team, UK Medical Center Library

Laffoon Room – 1st Floor

Learn how the Medical Center Library implemented an electronic model to streamline the ILL billing process and improve efficiencies within the University system by partnering with other agencies. This session will illustrate the Docline-compatible Electronic Funds Transfer System and OCLC's Interlibrary Loan Fee Management models and the cost and time savings associated with it for all types of libraries.

12:00PM – 1:30PM

KLA Awards Luncheon

Carroll/Ford Room – 2nd Floor

Keynote Speaker – Frank X. Walker is an Assistant Professor in the Department of English and Theatre and the Interim Director of African/African-American Studies at Eastern Kentucky University. He will read new poems that revisit Affrilachia and continue a commitment to sharing some of Kentucky's little known but rich history.

1:30PM – 2:00PM

Special Library Section Business Meeting

Laffoon Room – 1st Floor

1:30PM – 2:20PM

One Customer Service, One Purpose, One Promise

Presenter: Jetta Culpepper, Murray State University
Wilkinson Room – 1st Floor

Patrons/customers are attracted and retained through consistency in exceptional service throughout the staffing. Specific tips for staff regardless of job, plus e-mail etiquette and paradigm for clear instruction/service.

1:30PM – 2:20PM

Marketing Your Library on a Budget

Presenter: Kristi Tucker, Marshall County Public Library
Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

You CAN market your library without a lot of money. Marketing the library may seem an unnecessary expense during tough times when many libraries find themselves with a tight budget; however, it is more important now than ever. Get ideas that don't cost a lot of money!

L

I

B

R

A

R

I

A

N

S

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

1:30PM – 2:20PM

Lurking on Blackboard: Virtual Reference in the Virtual Classroom

Presenters: Linda Bartnik, Laura Ewald, and Jen Schatz, Murray State University

Collins Room – 2nd Floor

Many university faculty use classroom management tools like Blackboard. One of the most effective virtual reference experiences can be participating as a visiting instructor in the courses taught by discipline-faculty. MSU reference librarians have been practicing this form of student research assistance for three years. This session will focus on their experiences with hints on how to make it effective for student and instructor.

1:30PM – 2:20PM

Recruitment to the Library Field in Kentucky: One Group's Efforts

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Presenters: Susan Brown, Transylvania University; Rose Davis, Western Kentucky University; Terri Brown, University of Kentucky; and Enid Wohlstein, Kentucky Virtual Library

Learn about the efforts of the Kentucky Solinet Users' Group Recruitment Taskforce, where we've been, how we are reaching out to high school students and undergrads and promoting our profession as a career choice. Learn about our efforts to bring diversity to our profession in Kentucky. Also learn about the "Cataloging Our Profession" project. Participate in an open discussion on how you can act locally to create interest in our field and the varying roles we play in libraries and elsewhere.

1:30PM – 2:20PM

Information Literacy Across the Curriculum

Presenter: Marcia Freyman, Lexington Community College

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

Discussion of the liaison and workshop models in relation to subject area collaboration and coordination. Course development and assignment collaborations are key elements in this discussion. Assessment of information literacy will be discussed.

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

1:30PM – 2:45PM

The Federal Depository Library Program in the Twenty-First Century: Fulfilling the Promise of One Electronic Door to the Federal Government for all Kentuckians

Presenter: Judy Russell, Superintendent of Documents, GPO

Sampson Room – 1st Floor

Judith Russell, Superintendent of Documents and Managing Director, Information Dissemination U.S. Government Printing Office will outline the major shifts in emphasis that are underway at the U.S. Government Printing Office Program changes that will allow more access to Federal government information and publications, digitize all Federal government publications, and create a "collection of last resort" for the Federal government. Come hear how these changes will affect you, your library and the people you serve.

2:00PM – 2:30PM

KLTA Business Meeting

McCreary Room – 3rd Floor

2:30PM - 3:20PM

The Review Process

Presenter: Joe Tessitore, Publisher, Reed Business Information

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

How does the review process really work? How do books get selected? How do we find reviewers and select them for a specific project? What are the qualities we look for in a new reviewer? What steps should a librarian take to become a reviewer? It's not an easy process but many librarians successfully review and influence book selection every day. The editorial staffs of School Library Journal, Library Journal, Publishers Weekly and Criticas send their tips for becoming a reviewer.

2:30PM – 3:20PM

Foundations for Smaller Libraries

Presenter: Jarrett Boyd, Carroll County Public Library

McCreary Room – 3rd Floor

This session will outline the purpose of Library Foundations and how to establish a foundation for a small, rural library. Carroll County has been successful in this endeavor and Jarrett Boyd will share her experience and knowledge with attendees. Sponsored by the KY Library Trustees Association.

2:30PM – 3:20PM

Spreading the Word: Online Technical Services Classes

Presenters: Kathleen Richardson, Lexington Community College Library and Kate Seago, University of Kentucky Libraries

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

This session will discuss two online classes available from LCC that focus on increasing library staff's knowledge of library processing in particular collection development, acquisitions, and cataloging activities.

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

2:30PM – 3:20PM

Using RFID Technology in Libraries

Presenters: Mary McLaren and Nancy Lewis, University of Kentucky Libraries

Lafoon Room – 1st Floor

Overview of current and future uses of radio frequency identification (RFID) tags in libraries.

2:30PM – 3:20PM

Kentucky Retirement Systems

Presenter: Nanette Eichell, KRS

Collins Room – 2nd Floor

Each year, it seems, the General Assembly changes the laws relating to retirement. Here is an opportunity to learn about the current requirements and ask questions.

2:30PM – 3:20PM

Collaborative Cost Cutting: Journal Usage Studies and Other Cancellation Strategies

Presenters: Laura Davison, In Soon Chi, and Rick Brewer, Access Services Team, UK Medical Center Library

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

By partnering with several teams within the Medical Center Library (MCL), as well as participating in a campus wide initiative, a system was implemented to improve collection development decision making processes regarding journal cancellations. This presentation will highlight some of the strategies used by the MCL in developing an ongoing system of evaluation.

2:45PM – 3:30PM

Government Documents Roundtable Business Meeting

Sampson Room - 1st Floor

all conference session

3:30PM – 4:30PM

Go Ahead...Make Your Day!

Speaker: Susan Miller, Motivational Speaker, Author of OOMPH Power

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Susan believes there are two types of people: "Rise and Shiners" and "Rise and Whiners." The power of a positive "can-do" attitude propels winners toward success while losers are left behind, looking for someone to blame! This uplifting, empowering and entertaining program will show you how to re-energize your job, your relationships, your entire life!

4:30PM – 5:00PM

Academic Section Business Meeting

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

thursday, september 16 (cont.)

4:30PM – 5:30PM

KPLA Business Meeting

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

5:00PM – 6:00PM

KyVL Users Group Soiree

Wilkinson Room – 1st Floor

Hors d'oeuvres, drinks and networking for KYVL users and friends. Come join your colleagues for networking and feasting! The Kentucky Virtual Library Users' Group represents the end users of KyVL.

6:00PM – 9:00PM

Star of Louisville

Board transportation for the Star of Louisville, 130 feet of Yacht-style nautical elegance with indoor climate-controlled dining facilities and outdoor observation decks. Join your colleagues for a scenic cruise for Dinner on the Ohio River. The cruise includes unlimited hot and cold buffets and features live entertainment. Pre-registration is required for this event.

friday, september 17

7:30AM – 8:30AM

New Members Breakfast (By Invitation Only)

Carroll/Ford Room – 2nd Floor

all conference session

9:00AM – 10:00AM

The Future of Libraries

Speaker: Joe Tessitore, Publisher of Library Journal and School Library Journal

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Libraries are in a constant state of change. Perhaps this is truer than ever before. Budgets, NCLB, technology, politics, and the changing use of leisure time all play a role in the library of the future. Moreover, these very factors influence the everyday life of a librarian. These issues are covered in every issue of Library Journal and School Library Journal. Joe Tessitore, with the help of his highly respected staff, will summarize, analyze and take a look in the near and distant future.

10:00AM – 11:00AM

KLA Business Meeting

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

11:00AM

KSMA School Tours Depart

Meet group in Galt House East Lobby

L

I

B

R

A

R

I

A

N

S

*friday, september 17 (cont.)11:10AM - 12:00PM*The Morning Announcements: LIVE at your school!Presenter: Anne Hall - LMS, Shearer Elementary School
Taylor Room – 3rd Floor*

Do your teachers complain that students don't pay attention to the morning or afternoon announcements? What will it take to make them pay attention? Shearer Elementary School's morning news show is broadcast to the entire school live each morning. Only a small portion is pre-recorded. We'll share with you what we've learned, some tips on what NOT to do, people who can help you and some suggestions for sparking your students' interests.

11:10AM – 12:00PMPlanning and Implementing a Library ShiftPresenter: Susan Wild, University of Kentucky Law Library
Wilson Room – 3rd Floor*

Large or small, all library shifts must be planned. The processes, plans, worksheets, and ideas in this program come from shifting the entire UK Law Library paper collection, over 250,000 volumes. Susan used student workers and completed the entire shift in about six weeks. During that time no book was lost and everything asked for was found.

11:10AM – 12:00PMSimple Marketing Strategies: Promoting Your Library and Its CollectionPresenters: Cindy Gaffney and Ashley Fowlkes, Bowling Green Public LibraryNunn Room – 2nd Floor*

Looking for creative ideas to market your collection on a limited budget? Join us as we detail how to create a specialized collection from the proposal phase to various methods of effectively promoting a collection to a target group of customers.

11:10AM – 12:00PMHow Each Department Contributes to the "Library Product" as a WholeKaren Jefferson, University of Kentucky Libraries
Morrow Room – 3rd Floor*

Really good customer service must involve all library staff. Libraries have external, as well as internal customers. This session will help you motivate support staff to be outstanding in all areas of customer service.

11:10AM – 12:00PMWriting Support Through LiteraturePresenter: Cathy Connley - School Media Specialist, Moyer School, Ft. ThomasBeckham Room – 3rd Floor*

With all the emphasis on writing in the elementary schools, it is important to give students good examples of the six writing traits. These examples are found in children's literature. The email: bookem@kylbasn.org*friday, september 17 (cont.)*

Six Traits of Writing Assessment are explained and in this presentation, you will learn to help students recognize and understand these traits in what they are reading so that they will begin to use them in their own writing. You will get a list of books that fall into each of the six categories as well as having a chance to read books that have the examples of the six traits. You will also receive activities for linking reading and writing. Many of you will have these books in your collection but just need to make those connections. These books will become an important part of the writing process in your school!

11:10AM - 12:00PMWoody's Five Ways to be SuccessfulPresenter: Leigh Anne Florence - Author
Sampson Room – 1st Floor*

Leigh Anne Florence, author of the popular "Woody Book" series, shares her school presentation in this delightful session. Ms. Florence spent seven years as a public school teacher before resigning to concentrate on the Woody series. She has presented in 80 of the 120 Kentucky counties and has visited many Kentucky schools and libraries. Come join Ms. Florence and learn more about Woody!

11:10AM - 12:00PMPractical Living Fiction and Nonfiction Books for Elementary and Middle School ReadersPresenter: Jeanie Fridell, Resource Librarian, JCPS, Donna Benton, Practical Living Specialist, JCPS, and Linda Gray, Resource Librarian, JCPSStanley Room*

Gain Access to a bibliography of books to support the Kentucky practical living core content and share ideas about how to use it in collaboration with the teachers in your school responsible for teaching health, physical education, consumerism and vocational studies.

11:10AM - 12:00PMBook Talks for Middle School Kentucky Bluegrass Award NomineesPresenter: Janet Powers - Library Media Specialist,
Brown Room – 2nd Floor*

Having trouble getting your middle school students to read and vote on the Kentucky Bluegrass Award nominee books? This session will give you sure-fire booktalks to inspire them to read and participate in the KBA program.

11:10AM - 12:00PM60 Hot Tips for ALL LibrariansPresenter: Rebecca Trammell, University of Kentucky Law LibraryBreathitt Room – 2nd Floor*

From acquisitions to technology to staff morale, this session will share the 60 hottest tips for surviving in the 21st century library.

2004 KLA/KSMA Conference

friday, september 17 (cont.)

11:10AM - 12:00PM

One Profession, One Purpose: The Many Faces of the Special Librarian

Collins Room – 2nd Floor

Come and hear a panel of librarians representing various areas of librarianship including: Law, Military, Special Collections, Government Law, Government Documents, Medical, and Electronic Resources throughout the Commonwealth discuss what makes us different and yet alike, while providing information to those we serve.

11:10AM - 12:00PM

The “Art” of Libraries

Presenter: Geneva Huttenlocher, Louisville Free Public Library, Bon Air Branch

Laffoon Room – 1st Floor

Learn how to incorporate art into your daily programming. Come have fun and participate in an exercise from “Drawing from the mind, painting from the heart” by Annette Carroll Compton. See how art exhibits, contests, speakers, and book discussion groups can enhance the use of your collection.

11:30AM – 1:00PM

Children/Young Adult Author Luncheon

Presenters: Rebecca Jackson, Author & Rich Thompson, Illustrator

Carroll/Ford Room – 2nd Floor

Rebecca Jackson taught special education in the public schools and founded an employment agency for persons with handicaps prior to serving as the Jefferson County Judge/Executive and as Jefferson County Clerk. The first woman elected to either office, she led the successful campaign to merge the City of Louisville and Jefferson County Governments. Jackson has written Mackenzie and the Baby Robin, whose story line is of wandering away and turning back towards home. She collaborated with her cousin, Rich Thompson. Rich retired from Valley High School after teaching art and photography for 27 years. As a teacher, Thompson sought to encourage student’s creativity rather than turn them into da Vinci’s or Rembrandts.

1:10PM – 2:00PM

A Bibliographic Odyssey: The Real Story Behind the “True Story” of Hidalgo

Presenter: Katherine Pennavaria, Western Kentucky University, Glasgow Library

Stanley Room – 3rd Floor

Producers of the recent Disney film Hidalgo advertised it as “based on a true story.” Millions of American moviegoers have watched the film thinking that they were watching a bit of American history. But the story of Frank Hopkins, famed endurance rider who supposedly won a grueling horse race across Arabia, has been seriously questioned by academic researchers, archivists, and librarians. Here is the story of how one man’s literary invention of a more interesting self came to be accepted as historical fact. Diligent detective work in archives and libraries has now revealed that while there was a Frank Hopkins, the rest of the story is demonstrably fiction.

friday, september 17 (cont.)

1:10PM – 2:00PM

Managing and Encouraging Student Workers

Presenters: Carol Brinkman, University of Louisville, Kersey Library; Terri Kirk, Reidland High School Library; Amy Osborne, University of Kentucky Law Library

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

Looking for tips and tricks on how to best motivate and utilize your student workers? Then come join us for a lively panel discussion session that should prove handy to everyone who utilizes a student workforce. Each speaker will speak briefly of her experiences and then the audience will be able to join a broader discussion of the issues.

1:10PM – 2:00PM

The Dog Days of Reading: How to Successfully Plan and Present a Children’s Reading Experience Using Dogs

Presenters: Maureen Humphrey-Shelton and Lucinda Boots, Louisville Free Public Library

Sampson Room – 1st Floor

Learn how the Southwest Regional Library branch of the LFPL successfully planned and presented a “Read to a Dog” program with the WAGS Pet Therapy Group. Find out how children’s librarians can plan this non-judgmental reading experience using dogs at their library.

Benefits of Membership

In addition to publications, programs, and other professional benefits, KLA looks for opportunities to reward members with cost-saving benefits and other programs. This page consolidates the current programs available to KLA members. If you would like to recommend new programs for the Member Services committee to investigate, please contact any member of the Member Services committee.

Give back to KLA when you purchase books and other items online! KLA gets money when you use the Amazon.com and Barnes and Noble links to make your purchases! Click one of the buttons at left to proceed to the site. Your purchases will automatically credit KLA!

NEW: Liberty Mutual Group Savings Plan! As a member of the Kentucky Library Association, you can participate in Group Savings Plus. Group Savings Plus provides top-quality, affordable insurance protection through Liberty Mutual for many types of insurance. More information is available here.

Get a KLA discount on Long Term Care Insurance! Kentucky Library Association Long Term Care Insurance Information Center KLA has contracted with Monumental Life Insurance Company to offer Long Term Care Insurance to KLA members. Librarians, staff members and their family members are eligible for a premium discount and may also qualify for simplified issued underwriting. You may contact a representative at (859)276-2513 or (800)458-1186, or email CBJack1020@aol.com for additional information.

L

I

B

R

A

R

I

A

N

S

*friday, september 17 (cont.)1:10PM – 2:00PM*Urgent Assistance!! The Truth About Spam.Presenter: Beth Kraemer, University of Kentucky, William T. Young Library*Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

"I am highly compelled upon strict recommendation to write you this very urgent and confidential letter..." According to a 2003 CNN report, unsolicited bulk email costs up to $4 billion in lost productivity annually for US companies. Spam also impedes the free flow of information. As information professionals, librarians should be familiar with the effects of spam and the relative success of available coping strategies. This session will shed light on why you receive spam, why spam is so difficult to combat, and what, if anything, you can do to reduce spam. "I await your urgent reply while believing you do understand the confidential nature of this transaction."

1:10PM – 2:00PMClean It Up! Organizing and Preventing ChaosPresenters: Alice Abbott-Moore and Vicki Niehaus, University of Louisville*Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

"Hyper-tasking" has replaced "multi-tasking" as a concept and a term du jour. Increasingly we are asked to juggle more and more tasks and manage an ever-burgeoning amount of information-with less and less time and resources. What's an information professional, or anyone, to do? Stop the madness-or at least rein it in.

1:10PM – 2:00PMBrowser-Based Centralized Library Automation: Cut Costs And Impact Resources Across Your District.Presenter: Tom Whitaker - Marketing Follett Software Company*Collins Room – 2nd Floor

With today's high-speed connections, a centralized district solution may better fit your needs. It's browser-based, reliable and easy to manage - plus it delivers a strong return on investment. Learn how this next-generation, browser-based K-12 library system can help you organize and manage information resources anytime, anywhere across your district.

1:10PM – 2:00PMManagement of Your Library Media CenterPresenter: Tina Poindexter – LMS*Beckham Room – 3rd Floor

"First, don't panic! Second, plan it!" Come to this session to obtain some management and organizational ideas from someone who was sinking in the library media center and now has her head above water. You also will receive an annotated bibliography of some very helpful resources in management.

*friday, september 17 (cont.)1:10PM – 2:00PM*Turning Children on to WritingPresenter: Jerrie Oughton - Author*Laffoon Room – 1st Floor

Jerrie Oughton will show techniques to turn kids on to writing. Not only will this technique demonstrate the mechanics of writing but Mrs. Oughton will show how to pursue ideas with enthusiasm. This session will be an interactive program designed to give structure to the writing process much like a train where the cars are the scenes, full of action, and their couplings are the sequels, filled with introspection and flashback.

1:10PM – 2:00PMTLCPresenter: Bradley Cole, The Library Corporation*Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

Upgrade to an advanced automation system designed for your library. Learn why Library-Solution is easy to use and recommended by thousands of libraries like yours.

1:10PM – 2:00PMTime Savers for "Busy" Elementary Librarians!!Presenters: Rhonda Parrish and Vicki Warren - Library Media Specialists Allen County Primary Center*Taylor Room – 3rd Floor

Quick and easy tips for creative dramatics, puppetry, bulletin boards, live news broadcasts, I Love to Read week, Read Across America as well as many more useful ideas as experienced through the eyes of two primary librarians with rigid scheduling and approximately 1000 students in grades PreK-3.

1:10PM – 2:00PMNew Picture BooksPresenter: Susan Melcher - Retired Jefferson County Elementary Librarian, Professor at Spalding University (part-time)*Morrow Room – 3rd Floor

Susan will review and share recent picture books starred in School Library Journal.

1:45PM – 3:00PMTechnology TrendsPresenter: Glen Horton – Assistant Director & Technology Coordinator, Greater Cincinnati Library Consortium*French Room – 3rd Floor

Libraries on the cutting-edge know how to use new technologies to provide better services to their users. Technology's rapid pace, however, can make it difficult for even a techie to stay up to date. Horton will discuss the top trends in technology and how they may affect your library over the next year. He will also discuss resources you can use to stay on top of future trends.

friday, september 17 (cont.)

2:10PM – 3:00PM

The Fence or the Ambulance: Are You Punishing or Preventing Plagiarism in Your School?

Presenter: Doug Johnson - Director of Media and Technology, Mankato Area Public Schools, Mankato, MN
Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Too much effort is expended in education trying to “catch” plagiarism in student work. Teachers and media specialists are using various web services and techniques using search engines to determine if or how much of student writing is lifted from online sources. While such tools are necessary and can be effective, educators should also be creating assignments, especially those that involve research, that minimize the likelihood of plagiarism in the first place. This workshop gives teachers the tools that help them design LPP (Low Probability of Plagiarism) projects that require original, thoughtful research.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

This We Also Believe: Teaming at the Heart Yields Lifelong Achievement

Presenter: Johan Koren - Assistant Professor Murray State University

Stanley Room – 3rd Floor

The media center has been called the heart of the school. This we believe, say middle school reformers. Yet much of their literature does not mention school libraries, despite the growing number of studies that show school libraries help students learn. There have been studies in Alaska, Colorado, Texas, Missouri, Ohio and many other states. What about a Kentucky study, concentrating on middle schools and teaming?

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Supporting Literacy Online-Scholastic.com

Presenter: Kathy Walsh - Director of Training and Development Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

Scholastic.com is the most comprehensive learning destination for teachers, librarians, administrators and students on the Internet. This session will highlight the wealth of free resources and interactive tools to support literacy in today’s classroom and library available on this award-winning site. In a time of budgetary crisis and concerns, this session will demonstrate the wealth of FREE resources found on this exciting and essential educational site, and focus on how the site provides literacy skills for the 21st century. The Teacher Channel of Scholastic.com focuses on the most frequently taught skills and topics from state and national standard frameworks. The concentration of this workshop will be on the tremendous literacy resources posted on Scholastic.com. Teachers will be introduced to our Reading Resource Network, where experts from the field of reading discuss and model best practices and strategies. Teaching with Books, a searchable database of thousands of books combining lesson plans, author studies and extension ideas will be demonstrated. Writing with Writers—a rich and comprehensive unit covering areas of writing genre from fairy tales to folk tales, from mysteries to myths, from poetry to prose—will be discussed and explored.

friday, september 17 (cont.)

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Making Friends and Music in the '60s:

Presenter: Marie Bradby - Author

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

Learn about the pitfalls of pre-teen friendships (jealousy, following the crowd and bullying) through the eyes of 11-year-old Pearl Jordan, the main character in Marie Bradby’s new novel, “Some Friend.” Pearl also will help you walk/dance down memory lane with popular ‘60s songs.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Cite Here, Right Now: Citation Management Software and the Library

Presenter: Anna Marie Johnson

Taylor Room – 3rd Floor

More and more libraries are beginning to offer support for citation management software like EndNote®, Reference Manager®, and RefWork®. This service can be a useful tool to bring students and faculty into the library and help them learn about the library’s databases. This session will discuss the place of citation management software in the library, examine different citation management software options, and propose practical tips for librarians wanting to offer this service.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Instruction Initiatives for the Common Wealth

Presenters: Rebecca Maddox, and Sandy L. Farrell, Louisville Free Public Library and a panel of School, Academic and Public Librarians

Beckham Room – 3rd Floor

Interested in learning how Kentucky’s librarians are tackling information literacy these days? Then come join information literacy professionals from academic, public, and school libraries as they conduct a panel discussion of the latest instructional issues and collaborative initiatives. Learn how these librarians are working together to achieve a common wealth of information literacy.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Help! I Need Info On Consumer Law/Finance.

Presenter: Bryan Carson, Western Kentucky University Library

Morrow Room – 3rd Floor

Public, academic, and high school libraries are often called upon to provide information on law and consumer finance, yet they don’t have specialized materials. Questions range from finding tax information to helping students with papers, from writing wills to buying insurance. This program will discuss basic materials available without “breaking the bank,” as well as free web sites and strategies for answering questions.

L I B R A R I A N S

friday, september 17 (cont.)

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Genealogy and Local History for Librarians

Presenter: Rebecca Trammel, University of Kentucky Law Library

Collins Room – 2nd Floor

Genealogists are everywhere! What can we do as librarians to support their research while still serving our other patrons and maintaining our sanity? This session will offer helpful strategies, including online and print suggestions.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

KyVL@ your library: Our Mission and How We Work for You

Presenter: Enid Wohlstein, Kentucky Virtual Library

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

How does the Kentucky Virtual Library serve the libraries, librarians, and information professionals in our state? This session will cover the structure and benefits of KyVL, functions of the workgroups, who are the stakeholders and partners, current and future projects, and what it means to be a multi-type library consortium with statewide initiatives and offerings.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Academic Goes Public: An Adventure in Cooperative Service

Presenters: Lori Acton, Laurel County Public Library; Shelley Wood Burgett, Somerset Community College Library; Ray Turner, Somerset Community College Library

Wilson Room – 3rd Floor

Collaboration elaboration describing the cooperative venture of the Laurel County Public Library and Somerset Community College Library to provide academic library service to the faculty, staff, and students of the College's Laurel Campus.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Kids, LMC, and Reading!

Presenter: Jackie White - Assistant Professor UK

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Want to help parents understand how important the LMC can be to their kids' school? Come to this session to hear how you can promote your LMC to parents in your school community!

3:10PM – 4:00PM

You Can't Say That!: Writing Sonny's House Of Spies

Presenter: George Ella Lyon - Author

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Sonny's House of Spies is George Ella Lyon's newest book, published in June 2004. Mrs. Lyon will talk about writing this new book.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Frank Walker Reads

Presenter: Frank X. Walker - Author

Sampson Room – 1st Floor

Come here the melodious voice of Frank Walker as he reads from his newest works! His readings are always delightful and leave the listener wanting more.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Jack in Kentucky: Sharing Local Culture Through Folk tales

Presenter: Cindy Houston - Library Media Educator, Western Kentucky University

Morrow Room – 3rd Floor

friday, september 17 (cont.)

The folk character called "Jack" (made famous by his beanstalk adventures) has lived in Kentucky folk culture for generations because of his universal qualities. This session will highlight the numerous depictions of Jack in Kentucky literature and media and provide examples of how librarians can make Jack come alive in their educational programs for children and adults.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

The Politics of Training

Presenters: Constance Ard, Greenebaum, Doll, & McDonald and Billie Ann Gebb, Midway College Library

Collins Room – 2nd Floor

All librarians continuously train users due to changing technology. This session will review the politics of incorporating a training program for libraries. We will look at the intricacies of what is needed to ensure the success of a training program. From training and empowering staff to lead the charge in training to establishing a formal training program with administrative and user support in any institution.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Online Education for You...and Perhaps Your Principal

Presenters: Larry Nesbit, Mansfield University Library, Mansfield, PA, and Marjorie Pappas, Adjunct to Mansfield University

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

Mansfield University, a member of the State System of Higher Education has a totally online program especially designed to prepare effective school librarians and utilizes award winning school practitioners as its primary faculty. The program has received two prestigious IMLS grants and now has several hundred thousand dollar scholarships available to recruit new students and an online workshop that alerts school principals to the value of school libraries and librarians.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Super Search Strategies

Presenter: Tanzi Merritt - KyVL

Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

Do you feel comfortable searching online databases? Are you familiar with the terms "truncation" and "nesting?" This session will define a number of advanced search strategies and techniques and explain how to use them to get great search results.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Do Children Visit Your Library? The Kentucky Bluegrass Awards are for You!

Presenters: Julie George and Carrie Cooper, Eastern Kentucky University Library

Laffoon Room – 1st Floor

The purpose of the Kentucky Bluegrass Award is to encourage the students of Kentucky in grade K through 12 to read quality children's literature. All Kentucky public and private schools, as well as public libraries, are welcome to participate in the program. During this session you will learn about how to become involved in the program and the books that have been selected for this year's list. Public librarians are especially encouraged to attend this session!

friday, september 17 (cont.)

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Miracle!

Presenters: Angie Hawkins - Library Media Specialist and Rob Carroll, Principal

Beckham Room – 3rd Floor

This is the story of how a school goes from Level 3 Audit status to a national award winner. We will share the plan we used to bring about sweeping change in our school. Behavior referrals are down, achievement scores are up and morale is high. We will highlight the changes we made in the Media Center, taking it from boring and drab to the inviting hub of our school. The role of the media specialist has changed and we will share what that means at our school. Discussion will cover flexible scheduling, collecting data and public relations.

4:10PM – 5:00PM

Writing a First Novel: Finding My Way to The Gift Moves

Presenter: Steve Lyons - Author

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

My novel THE GIFT MOVES is set in a world like ours yet different in crucial ways. In order to find my characters on the page I had to look for them in the world, too. I'll read from the book and tell how I came to characters, story and place.

4:10PM – 5:00PM

Jesse Stuart - The Heritage.

Presenters: David and Lallie Dick - authors

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

David Dick shares his popular biography of one of Kentucky's legendary writers and teachers in Jesse Stuart-The Heritage. For many years a presenter for the Kentucky Humanities Council, David Dick has brought to the attention of audiences from Ashland to Paducah the story of the "writin' man from W-Hollow," he who wrote the classic teacher's declaration, The Thread That Runs So True. Jesse (1906-1984) won neither Nobel nor Pulitzer, but he did capture the hearts of a huge regional, national, and international readership. Come hear the stories behind the book.

4:10PM – 5:00PM

GROLIER ONLINE: The Best Educational Portal!

Presenter: Mark Garman-Library Sales Consultant, Grolier Online

Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

GROLIER ONLINE is the best educational portal for all libraries. This session will provide helpful hints and ideas to help you provide teachers and students with the most powerful online resource available. All databases will be reviewed with special emphasis on helping students, teachers and all library patrons spend less time searching and more time doing valid reading and research.

4:10PM - 5:00PM

Extreme Makeover @ your library™

Presenters: Amber Mauney Tongate and Wanda Jaquith Adams - LMS' at Tates Creek High School, Fayette County Schools

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

Come hear about several great changes we have made to our high school library in one year! You, too, can do an extreme makeover after these helpful hints!

friday, september 17 (cont.)

5:30PM – 6:30PM

KSMA Authors Reception

Fountain Room Restaurant – Galt House West Tower – 2nd Floor Mingle with a variety of authors as they sign books. The authors that participate in the Author Reception will join us as our special guests at the banquet. Each table will have a fabulous author randomly assigned to make the evening even more exciting.

Authors participating in Tonights Gallery and Banquet include, Crystal Wilkinson, John Kleber, Gerald McDaniel, Leigh Anne Florence, Frank X. Walker, Jerrie Oughton, Marie Bradby, George Ella Lyon, Steve Lyon, Lallie Dick, David Dick, Roberta Simpson Brown, Mark Sohn, and Doug Johnson.

6:30PM – 9:00PM

KSMA Awards Banquet

School Librarians: The First Line of Defense in the War Against Ignorance, Prejudice, and Intolerance.

Keynote speaker: Joe Tessitore – Group Publisher, Reed Business Information

His publications include School Library Journal, Library Journal, Publishers Weekly and Criticas. With over 30 years of experience in the publishing industry, Joe was previously President of Grolier Publishing where he led the launch of Grolier Online, and title development at Children's Press, Franklin Watts and Orchard Books. Previously he served as President of Prentice Hall Professional Publishing, a division of Simon and Schuster, and held senior marketing positions at McGraw Hill. Joe is a strong advocate for libraries, their funding and especially librarians. He believes that books and information are the first and last line of defense in a troubled World. Joe lives with his wife in Chappaqua, New York and is the proud parent of 3 children and 2 ½ grandchildren. Most importantly...he loves Kentucky!

saturday, september 18

7:00AM

KSMA Past Presidents Breakfast

River Grill – 2nd Floor Galt House West

8:00AM – 8:50AM

KSMA Board Meeting

McCreary Room – 3rd Floor

8:00AM – 8:50AM

GROLIER ONLINE: The Best Educational Portal!

Presenter: Mark Garman - Library Sales Consultant, GROLIER ONLINE

Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

GROLIER ONLINE is the best educational portal for all libraries. This session will provide helpful hints and ideas to help you provide teachers and students with the most powerful online resource available. All databases will be reviewed with special emphasis on helping students, teachers and all library patrons spend less time searching and more time doing valid reading and research.

saturday, september 18 (cont.)

9:00AM – 10:15AM

General Session - The Indispensable Librarian

*Presenter: Doug Johnson - Director of Media and Technology, Mankato Area Public Schools, Mankato, MN
Nunn Room – 2nd Floor*

This presentation examines the implications to school media specialists of the shift from print to digital information format. Will librarians go the way of the slide rule and buggy whip or become the most important people on the planet? The current roles as outlined in Information Power are reinterpreted, and some additional, proactive roles are suggested. A discussion of specific media competencies, retraining opportunities, and job security strategies follow.

10:30AM – 11:20AM

Picture This...the ABC's of Picture Books in High School

*Presenters: Margaret Omlor and Margaret Roberts, Library Media Specialists, Scott County High School
Brown Room – 2nd Floor*

Picture books have arrived! Picture books have grown up! There are many ways picture books can be used other than for a story. Picture books are perfect for teaching the elements of a story but in high school they can be used for so much more. Learn how you can use picture books to introduce or enhance secondary level content area lessons.

10:30AM – 11:20AM

A Guide to Better Picture Taking Plus Photo Care and Preservation

*Presenter: Candace Wilson - Library Media Specialist, Russell Co. Middle School
Wilson Room – 3rd Floor*

Are you the school photographer and keeper of the photos? Do you love to take pictures, but they turn out blurred or too dark? Can you find your photos when you want or need them? Are your shoeboxes empty of shoes, but full of pictures instead? If so, this is the session for you. Learn the proper care of photos so that future generations can enjoy them, plus get tips on better picture taking. You don't have to be a professional to take great pictures. Join us to learn how.

10:30AM – 11:20AM

Time Savers for "Busy" Elementary Librarians!!

*Presenters: Rhonda Parrish and Vicki Warren - Library Media Specialists Allen County Primary Center
Breathitt Room - 2nd Floor*

Quick and easy tips for creative dramatics, puppetry, bulletin boards, live news broadcasts, I Love to Read week, Read Across America as well as many more useful ideas as experienced through the eyes of two primary librarians with rigid scheduling and approximately 1000 students in grades PreK-3.

10:30AM – 11:20AM

Kentucky Bluegrass Award Books-3rd-5th grades

*Presenter: Becky Stephens - LMS Hearn Elementary School, Franklin Co. Schools
Nunn Room – 2nd Floor*

It's election year so have your students vote on books! Reviews will be given on 2004-05 KBA books for intermediate students. Read them and vote!

saturday, september 18 (cont.)

10:30AM – 11:20AM

Lights, Camera, Action! School Film Festival From Concept to Premiere

*Presenter: Dr. Christine McIntosh - LMS Bernheim Middle School
Beckham Room – 3rd Floor*

Having survived the second annual school film festival, one frazzled library media specialist will share all the steps (and pitfalls) she encountered in the process. From collaboration with teachers and classes, concept development, writing and editing of screenplay, recruitment of actors, props, rehearsals, taping, and the editing process, Dr. Mac will share what worked well, explain what she plans to change for the third annual film festival, and show several of the winning movies that took home the coveted "Bruin Choice Award" this year.

10:30AM – 11:20AM

Put Your Best Foot Forward! Promoting With Print Resources

*Presenter: Kathy Mansfield - LMS, Simpsonville Elementary School
Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor*

Learn how to create newsletters, brochures, handbooks, and business cards to promote the library media center using basic word processing programs. Create your own projects during the session, and pick up lots of samples! BYOD (Bring your own disk)

10:30AM – 11:20AM

Scholastic Book Fair

*Presenters: Michelle Stromquist and Carol Cook - Scholastic Book Fair Field Representatives
Collins Room – 2nd Floor*

Let Scholastic show you the easy steps of running a book fair. We will help you grow the revenue and increase the depth of books in your collection.

11:30AM – 1:00PM

KSMA Luncheon

*Carroll/Ford Rooms – 2nd Floor
Join your colleagues for lunch with Kathi Appelt, the author of Down Cut Shin Creek: The Packhorse Librarians of Kentucky and Bubba and Beau-Best Friends, a nominee for the Kentucky Bluegrass Awards in the K-2 section. This luncheon will also serve as the KSMA Annual business Meeting.*

1:10PM – 2:00PM

Censorship: What Ya Gonna Do When They Come for You?

*Diane Culbertson - Curriculum/Technology Resource Teacher, Jennie Rogers Elementary School, Danville Independent Schools
Brown Room – 2nd Floor*

Do you have a Selection Policy in place? Are you prepared for when the censors come calling? If not, this session should be a "wake up call." Learn how to handle these stressful situations and what Parents Against Bad Books in Schools (PABBS) is doing.

saturday, september 18 (cont.)

1:10PM – 2:00PM

Rediscover Reading: Book Talking Skills and Book Reviews

Presenter: Emmalee Hill - Library Media Specialist, Twenhofel Middle School

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

In the age of technology, some reading techniques get lost. Book Talking is one of the best techniques to “sell” a book. Sharpen your book talking skills and receive a bonus – Middle School book reviews.

1:10PM – 2:00PM

What Does Your Webpage Say About Your Library Media Center?

Presenter: Melissa Gardner - District TRT, Kenton County Schools

Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

What does your webpage say about your library media center? A good media center webpage can be one of the best ways to promote your library media program. Learn some tricks to ensure that you get the best possible response from your students, parents, and the community. See examples of effective websites that are making a real difference for their school library media centers.

1:10PM – 2:00PM

Literature and Art—Well Duh!

Presenter: Anita Jones - Library Media Specialist

Taylor Room – 3rd Floor

The Librarian knows about art! The Art teacher reads! One determined Librarian and one resourceful Art teacher collaborated to help students see the connections between the story, the art and the book. In this session find out how to take out the Duh! factor (and have more fun too).

1:10PM – 2:00PM

Kentucky Bluegrass Award Books – K-2nd grades

Presenter: Linda Graves - LMS Ballard Co. Elementary School

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Even the youngest children can participate in the Bluegrass Award process! Linda will review and show the award nominees for the primary grades.

Mark Your Calendar
2005 KLA/KSMA Conference
Galt House East, Louisville
September 14-17, 2005

saturday, september 18 (cont.)

1:10PM – 2:00PM

Using Andreas: the Messenger in Schools

Presenter: Gerald McDaniel - Author

Beckham Room – 3rd Floor

Andreas: the Messenger has potential to be used in literature, writing, and history classes. Come hear Mr. McDaniel give tips on how to do this in your school!

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Curriculum Connections and the Kentucky Information Literacy Benchmarks

Presenter: Barbby Hardy - Library Resource Specialist, Fayette County Public Schools

Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

Search and learn how to submit to this online tool made especially for Kentucky Library Media Specialist by Kentucky Library Media Specialist. Find useful activities for all grade levels as all LMS strive to be the collaborative instructional partners.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Book Discussion: What If All Librarians Read The Same Book?

Presenter: Nancy Palmquist - Library Media Specialist, South Oldham County High School

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

The Eyre Affair by Jasper Fforde was chosen as the book for our discussion this year. Librarians spend all their time reading books and eating bon-bons, right? Wrong! We know that many times our patrons are reading more than we are, so take this opportunity to read a good book and spend some time with fellow librarians discussing it! You owe it to yourself to refresh the reader in you.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

New Nonfiction for Elementary Libraries

Presenter: Marjorie Pappas - Adjunct Professor, Mansfield University

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

This session will include reviews of new nonfiction books for elementary libraries. Books will be clustered within themes related to the KY CC. Bibliographies will be provided, organized by themes, with summaries and review citations.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Jack in Kentucky: Sharing Local Culture Through Folk Tales

Presenter: Cindy Houston - Library Media Educator, Western Kentucky University

Wilson Room – 3rd Floor

The folk character called “Jack” (made famous by his beanstalk adventures) has lived in Kentucky folk culture for generations because of his universal qualities. This session will highlight the numerous depictions of Jack in Kentucky literature and media and provide examples of how librarians can make Jack come alive in their educational programs for children and adults.

L

I

B

R

A

R

I

A

N

S

saturday, september 18 (cont.)

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Budgeting for Mean, Lean Times

Presenter: Doug Johnson - Director of Media and Technology, Mankato Area Public Schools, Mankato, MN

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Based on a track record of building, obtaining and administering excellent library/technology budgets on both a building and district level, the presenter discusses current funding realities facing schools, gives a short primer on school district finance, describes six types of budgets, outlines the three elements of effective budgets, and suggests ways media professionals can increase their influence in the budgeting process.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Help, I Need Somebody!

Presenter: Debbie Riley – LMS, Paducah Middle School

Morrow Room – 3rd Floor

Learn how the library media specialist and classroom teachers enhance instruction through collaboration. A team effort in developing text sets of books reinforces concepts taught in every grade level. Yes, you can use picture books to teach the high school curriculum.

2:10PM – 3:00PM

Kids, LMC, and Reading!

Presenter: Jackie White - Assistant Professor UK

Beckham room – 3rd Floor

Want to help parents understand how important the LMC can be to their kids' school? Come to this session to hear how you can promote your LMC to parents in your school community!

3:10PM – 4:00PM

KY Bluegrass Award Books Grades 9-12 List Booktalk

Presenters: Nancy Palmquist and Noel Gnadinger - Library Media Specialist and English Teacher, South Oldham High School

Breathitt Room – 2nd Floor

Noel and Nancy will talk about the 15 new books that are on the KY Bluegrass Award list for grades 9-12 for the 2004-2005 school year. Students read and vote in this "people's choice award" type program. Find out more about the program and these fresh titles at this session!

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Shooting for Literacy—Student Made Photo-Illustrated Books

Presenter: Anita Jones - Library Media Specialist,

Taylor Room – 3rd Floor

Tired of the "same old thing" with literature? Try the artistic approach! This session features a project that blends literature, visual art and technology in an exciting way and is modeled after the works of an award winning author/illustrator's works where students write and photo-illustrate and books on basic concepts such as color, shape and perspective.

email: bookem@kylibasn.org

saturday, september 18 (cont.)

3:10PM – 4:00PM

This We Also Believe: Teaming at the Heart Yields Lifelong Achievement

Presenter: Johan Koren - Assistant Professor Murray State University

Beckham Room – 3rd Floor

The media center has been called the heart of the school. This we believe, say middle school reformers. Yet much of their literature does not mention school libraries, despite the growing number of studies that show school libraries help students learn. There have been studies in Alaska, Colorado, Texas, Missouri, Ohio and many other states. What about a Kentucky study, concentrating on middle schools and teaming?

3:10PM – 4:00PM

How to Make Your High School Alumni Web Page

Presenter: Lisa Hughes - LMS, Heath High School

Combs/Chandler Room – 2nd Floor

Would you like to go down memory lane and see pictures of your high school pals? If you go to our school's alumni page that is exactly what you will be able to do! (Okay, my pals, not yours!) I know what you are thinking, "How will I ever find the time to do that project?" Come to my session and I'll show you what you'll need and how to do an alumni web page. It is not as hard as it sounds and is great PR for the library. I might even show you my old high school picture!

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Picture Books to Chapter books: Making the Transition

Presenter: Crystal Smallwood - LMS at Dorton Elementary

Nunn Room – 2nd Floor

Attend this session if you would like some helpful tips on transitioning children from picture books into chapter books.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

The Morning Announcements: LIVE at your school!

Presenter: Anne Hall - LMS, Shearer Elementary School

Wilson Room – 3rd Floor

Do your teachers complain that students don't pay attention to the morning or afternoon announcements? What will it take to make them pay attention? Shearer Elementary School's morning news show is broadcast to the entire school live each morning. Only a small portion is pre-recorded. We'll share with you what we've learned, some tips on what NOT to do, people who can help you and some suggestions for sparking your students' interests.

3:10PM – 4:00PM

Management of Your Library Media Center

Presenter: Tina Poindexter - LMS

Brown Room – 2nd Floor

"First, don't panic! Second, plan it!" Come to this session to obtain some management and organizational ideas from someone who was sinking in the library media center and now has her head above water. You also will receive an annotated bibliography of some very helpful resources in management.

2004 KLA/KSMA Conference

2004 KLA JOINT CONFERENCE EXHIBITORS

BOOTH	EXHIBITORS	BOOTH	EXHIBITORS
6	KPC Architectural Products	45	KDLA McConnell Book Exhibit
7	Proquest	46	3M Library Resources
8	The Library Corporation, TLC	47	NIMCO, Inc
11	Baker & Taylor	48	Mansfield University
12	Davidson Titles, Inc	49	Central Business Group
13	Telesensory	50	Woodward Ross Jewelry
14	Junior Library Guild	51	Woollen, Molzan and Partners, Inc.
15	Junior Library Guild	52	Solinet
16	Children's Plus, Inc	53	Rand McNally Ed Publishing Division
17	GT & Associates	54	Rand McNally Ed Publishing Division
18	GT & Associates	55	Rand McNally Ed Publishing Division
19	Follett Library Resources	56	Rand McNally Ed Publishing Division
20	Follett Library Resources	57	World Book, Inc
21	Scholastic Book Fair	58	World Book, Inc
22	Scholastic Book Fair	59	The Blue Marble Children's Bookstore
23	Scholastic Book Fair	60	Bound to Stay Bound Books
24	Scholastic Book Fair	61	Emery Pratt Company
25	InfoVision Software	62	Follett Software Company
27	A+ Images, Inc	63	Rainbow Book Company
29	Blackstone Audio Books	64	Rainbow Book Company
30	Garreet Book Company	65	EBSCO Information Services
31	Big 6 Learning Resources	66	Martin E & D Company
32	Spectrum Industries, Inc	67	BBC Audiobooks America
33	Burrow Library Service	68	BWI
34	Burrow Library Service	71	MS Creations
35	Perma Bound	72	Encyclopedia Britannica
36	KSMA Silent Auction	74	Quality Books, Inc.
37	KSMA Silent Auction	75	Ingram Library Services
38	KY School Media Association	76	H.W. Wilson Company
39	ALA/KLA	77	The University Press of KY
40	KY Library Association	78	The University Press of KY
41	KY Library Association	79	Stop Falling Products
42	Jackson Senior Solutions	80	Gale/Thomson
43	Grolier/Childrens Press/Franklin Watts	81	Bowker
44	KDLA McConnell Book Exhibit	82	Camcor, Inc.

General Information

Conference Site

The Galt House East Hotel in downtown Louisville is the site of the 2004 KLA /KSMA Joint Conference. Located along the Ohio River at Fourth and River Road, the Galt House is accessible from 1-65 and 1-64. The Galt House East is an all suite hotel. Between the Galt House and the Ohio River lies a park-like area known as the Belvedere which provides a lovely view of the river. You will find the cruise ships Belle of Louisville docked at the riverfront below the Belvedere, and just a few blocks down Fourth Street is 4th Street Live. Other nearby attractions include: Actors Theater, the Kentucky Center for the Arts, Louisville Slugger Bat Factory & Museum, GlassWorks Studios, and The Louisville Science Center.

KSMA School Tours

The elementary and Middle/High School Tours will depart promptly at 11:00 a.m., Friday, September 17. Meet the group for departure in the Galt House East Lobby. Preregistration Required.

Registration

Conference attendees may preregister until September 3rd. Preregistration packets and meal tickets may be picked up at the conference registration desk which will be located on the second floor of the Galt House East. On-site registration will be available all hours the registration desk is open. Please register in advance to avoid the confusion and delays at the registration desk. The registration desk will be open :

Wednesday, Sept. 15	8:00 am - 5:00 pm
Thursday, Sept. 16	7:30am -6:00pm
Friday, Sept. 17	7:30am -7:00pm
Saturday, Sept. 18	7:30am -12:00noon

*Please preregister and avoid congestion at the registration desk. For security reasons, you must visibly wear your 2004 Conference Nametag to enter the presentations.

Membership Dues

We will accept dues at the registration desk. Please write separate checks for registration and dues to speed processing.

Please Note: All Conference sessions are designated Non-smoking

Ticketed Events

Advance purchase of tickets for meal functions is highly recommended. Meal tickets are required for each meal and will be collected. Please contact the KLA Office if you have special dietary needs. The Thursday Night Star of Louisville Dinner Cruise requires preregistration. For security reasons, you must visibly wear your 2004 Conference Nametag to enter the events.

Membership Meeting

The KLA holds an annual meeting of the general membership only once per year at the KLA Business Meeting at the Annual Fall Conference. The 2004 meeting will be held Friday September 17th at 9:00am.

New Members and First Time Attendees

A special welcome is extended to all new members and first time attendees! Please join other newcomers and meet association officers. Find out more about the Kentucky Library Association, how you can become actively involved, and what you can get out of your membership. New member/Mentoring Breakfast Friday 8:00am. By Invitation Only please.

Exhibits

Be present for the Grand Opening of the Conference Exhibits on Thursday at 10:00 am. Please show your support by visiting all of the exhibits. *For security reasons, you must visibly wear your 2004 Conference Nametag to enter the exhibits.

The exhibits will be open:

Thursday, Sept. 16	10:00am - 12:00noon	1:00pm - 5:30pm
Friday, Sept. 17	8:00am - 12:00noon	1:00pm - 6:30pm
Saturday, Sept. 18	8:00am - 12:00noon

First Level

Second Level

Third Level

